

Tammuz organization to distribute assistance for orphans in Thi-Qar province to accomplish Hold My Hand project

Under the slogan (Education for All), Thi-Qar province office of our organization distributed assistance to the orphans and needy to pursue their education. The activity took place on Wednesday Nov 3 2010 in a celebration in Ka'ab Primary School in Thi-Qar. During the celebration, The members of our organizations explained the World Campaign for Education to urge the governments fulfill their promises in education and eliminating illiteracy. The gifts included stationary, clothes as a contribution of the organization reducing the economical burden those orphans families carry. The implementation of the project was accomplished in cooperation with the school management office and the orphans' families. Those families expressed their appreciation for the organization for its initiatives to support students.

In general, Tammuz organization has been implementing the project of scholars support (Hold my Hand) since 1999 in phases and began from 2009 to implement the project in cooperation with ANHUR for education on human rights and citizenship. Our organization is implementing other activities in civil society in some slums of Baghdad province such as handing out posters of the campaign in Abghdad and erbil
