

Tammuz organization for social development observes number of violations before the starting of the Electoral campaigns

Tammuz organization for social development has observed number of electoral violations before the official starting of the electoral campaigns. Some of these violations can be noticed obviously and group of these violations are the following:

- The Face book propaganda for the candidates and the electoral lists that are participating in the election. The propaganda was broadcasted in other websites.
- The daily newspapers propaganda for the benefit of some candidates.
- Some satellite channels broadcasted advertisement for the benefit of some candidates.
- The Iraqi High Election Commission depended on the certificates of morning graduates candidates for the election competition. It ignored the candidates who were graduated from afternoon studies at their colleges. These procedures violated the conventions and law as these colleges (the afternoon studies and the private colleges) which are authorized establishments.

These above-mentioned violations are considered a breach to the code of conduct and violations against the instruction of the High Commission of Election IHEC. Thus, from our own assessment to the status quo, we find that the situation is unstable politically, medially. One of the main reasons was the decision of the Commission of interrogation and Justice to exempt 551 candidates from proceeding in the election campaign. We look forward to have integrated campaigns and election procedures that conforming the disciplines and rules of IHEC and International election rules.
