

The Tammuz Organization for Social Development in Babil Province distributed a new batch of aids to orphans

The Tammuz Organization for Social Development in Babil Province distributed a new batch of aids to orphans from the students on Saturday, June 19 2010 during a ceremony held in July at the office of the province, the ceremony included the distribution of gifts and financial grants and different outfits for children. This activity was held with the support of friends of the organization and relative people in the province. The people presented their recognition of the Organization role in supporting children, especially the orphans, to promote their social, moral and financial life. The initiative was to motivate and give the pupils hope to move forward and educate themselves and make them aware that they are our future and the builders of the present, the celebration also included playing some songs and presenting the organization profile and its role in the support of children in general and orphans in particular. It is known that Tammuz Organization for Social Development continues to carry out such projects in all governorates, as well as ongoing awareness workshops on the defense of human rights, especially the rights of the children for a civil society free from all forms of violence and marginalization.
