

Tammuz organization hands the school supplies for the orphan students in Zafar Primary School in Baghdad

Under the slogan (Education for All) and in continuation with the implementation of the scholar project (Hold my Hand) to support the orphan students and the needy to pursue their scholar career, Tammuz presented some school supplies to the students. The initiative took place in May 18 2010 and the organization distributed the school supplies in a beautiful ceremony in Zafar Primary School in Bab Alsharqi in Baghdad. The activities included some intervals to identify the World Education Campaign, its goals, and how to induce the governments to fulfill their commitments toward it and to eradicate the illiteracy.

The gifts included some school clothes and some stationery to reduce the economical burden. The initiative was implemented after getting the permission to hold it from the School administration. We also met the students' families in the area to detect their economical and social status and they presented their appreciation to the organization for its care and support of the needy and orphan students.

It is worth mentioning that the project of scholar support (Hold my Hand) that was and still is implemented by Tammuz organization for Social development was inaugurated in 1999 and is still continuing on stages. Since 2009, the organization is implementing the activities of the project simultaneously with the world campaign for education and in cooperation with Iraqi
