

Tammuz organization for social development participates in the process of updating the voters' register of the coming parliamentary election

Tammuz organization for social development participated in the process of updating the voters' register of the parliamentary election of 2010 through its observers. The first day of updating was the 22nd of August 2009. The observers were and still are distributed in all the Iraqi governorates. The preliminary reports pointed that the process has been carried out with no troubles. The number of voters are increasingly going to the updating centers. The touring teams and our organization have the credit behind this outstanding increase where they participated in handing over the voters cards.

It is worth noting that our organization has completed its preparation to observe the electoral process. The observers' names and registration are under the supervision of the Higher Commission of Election. Furthermore, our organization has observed the Constitution, parliamentary, governorates' councils election as well as the Lebanese election.
