

TAMMUZ ORGANIZATION PARTICIPATES IN REGIONAL DELEGATION VISITING CANADA

Our colleague and chairwoman on behalf of the organization participated in regional delegation to visiting Montreal and Ottawa cities in Canada.

The delegation represented the coordinating committee of the Arabic network for education on human rights and citizenship (ANHUR). The goal of the visit was to discuss the strategic memorandum of understanding conducted between ANHUR and the Canadian Organization EQUITAS.

The visit took place in the period March 14 thru March 25 2010. The steering committee conducted meetings with Canadian Development agency CIDA and the department of foreign affairs as well as other Canadian organizations that are working in the Middle East and North Africa. The two parts discussed the ways to enhancing, strengthening the links and reciprocating the information and experience. The steering committee also discussed the ways of developing the work of the network in the future. Some activities of the Canadian organizations permeated the meetings.

It is worth mentioning that ANHUR network is composed of 75 organizations members exert and the steering committee that is composed of members from Iraq, Palestine, Egypt, Yemen, Morocco and Jordan harmonizes the activities of these 75 organizations in the domain of human rights and citizenship.

Tammuz organization is member of the Arabic Network ANHUR and the head of the organization was nominated to be in ANHUR since 2008.

The organization has many bilateral relations and wide range activities with the Local, International and regional organizations that share the same goals of our organization.
